A pillar-flanked front porch welcomes you to the Oak Park plan. Entering through the front door leads you through to the foyer and into the main part of the house, where you will find an open and inviting kitchen, dining and great room. Also found downstairs, is a secluded bedroom, while the other three bedrooms and large bonus room are upstairs. Whether you decide to build with us, making customizations along the way or buy one already built, you can't go wrong with the Oak Park.
