The Garnet is designed with an easy, natural flow that brings the kitchen, dining, and great room together in a way that feels open and inviting. Expansive windows fill the main living spaces with light, giving the home a bright and welcoming feel throughout the day. The kitchen stands at the center of it all, offering a functional layout that makes everyday living and entertaining feel effortless. A tucked away primary suite adds a sense of privacy and creates a quiet place to unwind. Thoughtful separation between spaces gives the home both connection and comfort, making it feel livable from the moment you walk in.
